Itelegraphed and wrote argently for rations and forage to be seat as but on Saturday morning before the action was resumed I received a letter from troops in his command. General McClellan is Gen. Frankin written the before at Alexandria stating to me that he had been directed by General after the Robel army. McClellan, to inform me that rations and forage to my command would be loaded into the cars and available wagons as soon as I would send a Cavalry escort to Alexandria to bring them up, all hopes of being able to maintain my position whether victorious or not vanished with this letter.

My Cavalry was ulterly broken down by lonand constant service in the face of the enemy, and bad as they were could not be spared from the miles to Alexandria and await the loading of trains At the time this letter was written Alexandrin was swarining with troops, and my whole army interposed between that place and the enemy, and at ence understood that, we must if possible, finish what we had to do that day, as night must see us behind Bull Run if we wished to save men and auimals from starvation."

FROM PORT ROYAL.

NEW YORK, 10.

The Times Port Royal Correspondent says Gen. Hunter's policy with regard to the negroes has been adopted by the President, and five negro regts, are to be raised, armed and uniformed for the service of the United States, and that 50,000 in addition are to be enrolled to be employed in the Quartermaster's Department, nominally as laborers, but organized into companies and uniform-

The exact time of commencing the work of enlitting the colored regts, is not stated, but it is expected to be soon.

Gen. Saxton's visit to Washington is for consultation on this subject.

CAPTURE OF POOLESYILLE, New York, 10th.

Processille correspondent fornish additional de tails of the capture of Poolesville by the rebels-The rebels advanced on the place on Friday and mayed out in some force this side. These were part of three companies of the 1st Mass Cavalry in their front observing the rebel approach. The officers in command were Capt. Motley, Capt.

Ghamberlain and Capt. Welles.

They formed in line by battalions and by their steadiness in front and skillful disposition delayed the relief advance for hours and finally Gen. Lee WHOLESALE STORE sent[9 miles to the rear for Artillery to disperse the force, he supposed to be in front of him, before the artiflery this handful of men was of course compelled to retire and as soon as their movements in olumn disclosed the weakness of their force the rebel cavalry gathered heart and came on at the charge.

It was two to one and there was nothing for it but to get off as rapidly as possible. is said that their friendship for the secoch of Paltimore is such that they will aroud bringing on that city the shells of Port Mellenry, or any other severe infliction within our power to bestow, but it is not absolutely certain that they will so referin from displaying their strength when a way is opened for them.

. It appears that most of the recent success of the rebel are won, not by numbers, nor by severe fighting, but by flanking us with their cavalry. Several thousand of desperate riders constitute this body, fed by Stuart, and when they approach a division of our forces in defeneive pretion anyways they select one wing on the other and charge, turning the flank of our whole lores, throwing it into confusion, and breing a defeat. The moment this is done they are off to a new field of operations. Having driven our troops back on the fortifications at Washington, they were at besure for a ride elecwhere, and started off for the Potomac crossings at airl above Elwards Ferry. Here they flank is again, and as we retire gain the respectable town of Prederick, some ifficen miles from the Pot macing Mary and says and refer

As we have said, one or two more flankings of the same nort will take them anywhere else they may wish to go for the next sixty miles ---After that is done, what will follow! What does the government propose to do to arrest this march of some twenty thousand armed Virginia farmers on horseback calling themselves cavalry ! No doubt they are daring and successful fighters, and that a hadiffed body of infantry would suffer loss and inconvenience by an attack from them; but can they paralyze two hundred and lifty thousand of the deceased, for the purpose of receiving them men enquipped with all the appliances of warfare, and massed about Washington as fact he they can be guthered from the whole north ! One would suppose not. Supply, there must at some time be a trick available to meet this flanking process, and it is highly a probable that if a strong column were to examine the, rebels would be forced to have a flank of their own, and selected, (on the north side of the main pathway that not absolutely secure against assault. GEN. HENTZELNAN TO COMMAND SOUTH OF THE POTONAC.

McCLELLAN PRESSING THE BEBELS.

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—Major Gen. Heintzelman has been appointed to command the forces for the defense of Washington seath of the Postonac The friends of Brigadier General Mansfield ear that he is to be appointed a Major General of volinteers.

A special dispatch to the Bulletin from Harrisborg represents that all is quiet there. No rebel sorements had taken place towards Hagerstown. A force of our cavalry, under Gen. McClellan, aptured Bainsborough, in the rear of Newmarket yesterday,

The operator at Hanover save that refugees from rederick report that the rebels are intrenching lown up the iron bridge over that river.

The Baltimore American says that the rebelare scorting in the neighborhood of Frederick for horses, cattle, &c., and that they will probably enter Pennsylvania if sufficient time is afforded them. The National Intelligences of Washington says that the rebels have failen back from Gen. Mc

Ciellan's front, which has advanced to within six niles of Poolestille. Reports from York of yesterday say that the rebels had entered York county, but were reported to be at Emmetsbury, on a line not more than eight miles from Gettysburg. Thay had stationed their pickets six miles from Union Bridge. There are no signs of an approach of the rebeloward Wastininster.

PROM PENNSYLVANIA.

ALL ABLE-BODIED MEN CALLED OUT.

Philadelphia, Sept. 10. Governor Curtin ha smed aniorder calling on all able-bedied men of the State to organize immediately and be ready to march at an hour's notice, and requests the officers and members of all companies to provide themselves with the best arms they can secure. with at least sixty rounds of assummition.

NO REBELS NEAR HAGERSTOWN.

RECOVERY OF THE BODY OF GENERAL BOILEY.

Washington, Sept. 10. A gentleman has ar rived here who left Hagerstown yesterday. He reports that the enemy has not made his appearance at that place nor in the neighborhood. Many Union citizens have left, and the resessionists even do not desire the approach of the rebels,

The party who left here on Saturday under a The proceedion moved up Brued Street, down ed with it to Washington last night. They were Spring, down Franklin, up Thaines, wheat the the recipients of the kindest attentions from the escort halted North of the residence of the family rebels, and represented that the country through which they passed was almost desolate from the effects of the war.

Prom : Harrisburg .- A Harrisburg letter states that large numbers of refugees are arriving there from Hagerstown and Chambersburg. It was reported at Chambersburg that a rebel spy bad been arrested there, with maps and plans of the Cumberland Valley in his pocket. All the sick and nounded soldiers formerly quartered at Frederick, about $00 in number, have been transferred to Gettyshing, in York county. There is much exeltement in York county, and a delegation has been o Harrisburg for annis. Troops from New York, Vermont, Massachmetta and Indiana have arrived Stun possibly, at the last, to capitalate.

NEW YORK, 11th.

A Washington despatch to a morning Journal tays in the skirmish of Friday at Poolsville the following easitalties occurred all in the 1st Mass., Cavalry: F. J. Westen of Springfield, slightly wounded, Gustave Evans, badly bruised, John F. Man, wounded in leg, Fred Fisher of Boston, in the leg. The three first were taken prisoners and afterwards released, 🖅 🚉

A letter dated Supt, 9th from Camp near Pooles ville says the first Mass., Cavalry, Col. Williams recently arrived from Port Royal and were sent forward in urgent baste from Washington with orders to picket the Potomac to Harpers Ferry .--The Regiment left Alexandria at midnight on Wednesday and arrived Thursday morning at Tennallytown.

They marched at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and by 9 o'clock the next morning were at Monocacy 40 miles distant and in the presence of the enemy. Only two battallions are here one battallion being still at Port Royal. These two have done the most of the picket duly on a very extended front, very arduous duty with limited supplies for men that horses but they have done it in a most thorough nanner.
